One Kirti Narrienger owned an estate worth Rs 20 to 25 Thousand at Talkad, and died sitting leaving an heir to it. As per Kirti Narrienger's widow Kalyanamma directions on her death bed, his Sister Narayanamma is said to have endowed all properties to Sri Kirti Narayana Swami temple at Talkad., and K. Lakshminarasimhachar claims to be the chief Trustee nominated under the endowment. Seed— One Ananta Narayana Jois claimes to be the adopted son

To

Secretary to the Government of His Highness

the Maharaja of Mysore, Local & Legislative

Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

In submitting herewith petition C No.78/23-24 dated 15th November 1923 from K. Lakshinarasimha Char, Dharmaseva Trustee Sri Kirthinarayana-Swami temple, Talkad, with its enclosure, I have the honor to state that from the previous papers of this office (Vide this office file D_1 Dis.52 of 22-3 also enclosed) it is seen that one Kirthinarayana Iyengar owning an estate worth Rs.20 to 25 thousand at Talkad died without leaving an heir to it. His wife Kalyanamma, when on her deathbed, instructed her sister-in-law Narayanamma, to endow the estate to the Kirthinarayana -- Swami temple at Talkad for the purpose of conducting certain sevas in the temple and a registered deed seems to have been executed under which -- the petitioner claims to be the chief Trustee nominated.

2. The petitioner in his petition of October 1922 represented to my predecessor that the property endowed to the temple was claimed by one Ananthanarayana Jois who had absolutely no title to it and who alleged himself to be the adopted son of the other sister Venkatamma of Kirthi-Narayana Iyengar and requested interference of Government as the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District referred him to a Civil court to have the dispute settled. The petition was rejected with the observation that the endowment on behalf of the temple cannot be accepted until the properties were delivered by the parties concerned with a clear and ----- undisputed title. This order was upheld by Government.

3. In his present petition, the petitioner submits a copy of the judgment passed by the Sub-ordinate Judge, Mysore, declining to grant the request of Ananthanarayana Jois for a succession certificate in respect of a debt due to the estate of Parthasarayan Iyengar and prays that as the Judge has dismissed the case as being invalid that favourable orders may be issued to secure the produce of the endowed lands for the benefit of the temple from the hands of ryots who have the right of their ---- cultivation.

4. In the course of his judgment. the Subordinate Judge has stated that Narayanamma is the best person entitled to the estate of Parthasarathi Narayana Iyengar and that the proper course was for her to apply for a succession certificate and to lodge the so called endowment deed with proper authorities.

5. In the above circumstances I request to be informed what course should be adopted for compelling Narayanamma to take out a succession certificate and to carry out the wishes of the deceased. It is ---- feared that unless immediate steps are taken in the matter, the large endowment to the temple may lapse.

I have the honor to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Will executed on 21st August 1921 by Naranamma, resident of Talkad, T. Narsipur taluk, wife of Srinivasiengar and - - daughter of Subba Pandit, in favour of K. Lakshminarasimhachar, chief trustee for Kirthinarayana Swami at Talkad.-

As per promises made by Kalyanamma (deceased) wife of my brother Kirthinarayana Iyengar, I do hereby will that after my death all the properties noted below which belong to me and are now in my enjoyment, in favour of Kirthinarayana Swami. Excepting myself there are no others who have any sort of claim on the properties. I appoint as executors of the will Koti Srinivasa Thathachar, Gavi Narasimhachar, my son-in-law Tirumalachar, Kadambia and K. Lakshminarasimhachar (chief executor). The above-named persons should carry out my wishes in respect of these charities and Government should take - accounts from these people and Government should not at any time take over the properties and discontinue the services in the temple for which the properties have been endowed. Out of the produce of the lands, 15 candies of paddy should be given to the Archak for Nivedanam; 50 kandies to be utilized for Rathothsavam and 12 for the Tirunakshtra of the Jeeyar and the balance to be used for such seva as may be suggested by the chief trustee K. Lakshminarasimhachar. The debts recoverable from Naranappa and his brother Gopalakrishnaiah should be recovered with interest thereof and utilized for repairing the old nala and ~~sluices~~ thus providing irrigation - facilities for the lands below the nala. The house and ~~Gollara nadu~~ Gokarnada thittu and the dry lands in Kudigandahalli to be sold away and the proceeds thereof should be utilized for purchasing jewels to Sri Kirthinarayana. The income from Inam land supplemented by other incomes making a total of not less than Rs.100 should be utilized every year for purchasing jewels to the God.
